

Newberg

An Annotated Bibliography of the Historical Resources available in the Local History Collection
at the Newberg Public Library

Books

Newberg

979.539

Fuller

Newberg by Tom Fuller and Christy Van Heukelem

The first commercially published book about Newberg, filled with photos and stories of the community.

979.539

Edmonston

Newberg: Stories from the Grubby End by George Edmonston Jr.

Selection of well researched stories of Newberg's early days.

372.9595

Doyle

From Then Til Now by Barbara Doyle

The history of education in Newberg, focused on Central School.

979.539

Miller

A History of Newberg by Jennie D. Miller

Compiled from facts gathered by Miss Jennie D. Miller (librarian) in 1936-38. It provides an excellent overview of the history, businesses and people in Newberg.

979.5

Newberg

A Century to Remember 1889-1989 by The Newberg Graphic

A special publication of the local paper having one of the most complete histories of Newberg, published upon the occasion of the newspaper's and city's centennial.

979.5

Newberg

Centennial of Old Oregon (1905) by The Newberg Graphic

A souvenir edition celebrating 100 years since the arrival of Lewis and Clark. Filled with stories of Newberg as well as advertisements, pictures and people.

979.5

Newberg

50th Anniversary Edition (1939) by The Newberg Graphic

An anniversary issue celebrating The Newberg Graphic's 50 years of publication with more history as well as a good selection of pictures of Newberg in 1939.

979.5

Newberg

Diamond Anniversary Edition (1963) by The Newberg Graphic

Another anniversary issue celebrating 75 years of publication with more history and photos of Newberg in the early 60's.

979.539

Newberg

Newberg Fire Department Centennial Edition (1998) by The Newberg Graphic

Featuring stories of Newberg's fire department and its history of service.

- 979.539 Springbrook: A Cooperative Community Then and Now by Daisy
Read Newhouse Read Springbrook was a community on the northeast edge of Newberg.
- 385.5 Red Electrics by Tom Dill
Dill The story of the first trains to ply the Willamette Valley, includes photos of Newberg.
- 979.539 A Heritage to Honor A Future to Fulfill: George Fox College 1891-1991
Beebe by Ralph Beebe
An excellent centennial publication on George Fox that includes many local luminaries.

The People

- 921 Miles Lowell Edwards... His Ancestors & Descendants by Margaret
Edwards and Lowell Edwards
The Edwards family were founders of Newberg.
- 921 Ted Francis: Movie Man by Betty Kruse Smith
Francis The story of local movie theatre owner Ted Francis who provided Newberg residents with movies from the 1920's to today. His family continues his legacy.
- 917.9539 Minthorn House: Boyhood Home of Herbert C. Hoover
Olsen A small pamphlet describing the Minthorn House and Hoover's time in Newberg.
- 921 Portrait of a Quaker: Levi T. Pennington by Donald McNichols
Pennington The story of a long time George Fox University president.
- 921 Rambling Recollections by Levi Pennington
Pennington More remembrances from Levi Pennington, early George Fox University president.
- 921 Ewing Young, Master Trapper by Kenneth Holmes
Young Ewing Young was one of Oregon's earliest pioneers who homesteaded near Newberg.

Newberg & Yamhill County

- 372.9595 Schools of Old Yamhill by Ruth Stoller
Yamhill Loaded with photos of schools and school children throughout Yamhill County.
- 979.5 A Photographic History: Yamhill County by The Newberg Graphic
Yamhill 112 pages of pictures and captions depicting all communities in Yamhill County.
- 979.539 Old Yamhill: The Early History of its Towns and Cities
Yamhill Each community in the county is featured with its history and photos.
- 979.539 Stories of Old Dundee by Marion Brumbeck
Brumbeck A Dundee history published in 1981, filled with photos.
- 979.539 Pioneer Families of Yamhill County by Mercedes Paul
Paul Genealogy on Yamhill County families

979.5 Song of Yamhill by Gordon Zimmerman
Zimmerman Primarily the story of the city of Yamhill, other Yamhill County information is included.

Surrounding Communities

979.537 St. Paul Oregon 1930-1890 by Harvey J. McKay
McKay An early history of St. Paul, located just south of Newberg in Marion County.

979.535 An Oak Grove on French Prairie: A history of Donald Oregon by Greg Collins and Kathleen Collins
Donald is located just south east of Newberg, near Champoeg.

979.5 Champoeg: A Place of Transition by J. A. Hussey
Hussey Oregon's history started in Champoeg, a community just south of Newberg.

979.5 Men of Champoeg by Caroline C. Dobbs
Hussey The story of the early pioneers who were part of Oregon's statehood efforts.

Other Media

979.54 Hoover Minthorn House Video
Hoover A video of the Hoover Minthorn House.

921 Ewing Young's Venture with Destiny Video
Young A video of how Ewing Young's story led to Oregon Statehood

Newspapers (please ask at the desk for assistance)

The Newberg Graphic has been in continuous publication since 1888, one year before Newberg was incorporated as a community.

Paper copies: (loose and bound versions) Various from 1905 to 1919, from 1921 to present

Microfilm: December 2, 1888 to present

Newspapers with shorter publication times.

Newberg Enterprise (microfilm) December 29, 1910 to September 27, 1917

Newberg Scribe (microfilm) Dec 3., 1931 to March 28, 1940, (paper copies) 1932-1940

Chehalem Valley News (paper copies) Aug. 11, 1949 to June 26, 1952

Newberg Weekly (paper copies) 1981

Newberg Times (paper copies) October 1983-1984

Newberg-Dundee Chehalem News (paper copies) July-Sept. 1995

Other Resources

Historic Home and Building Inventory History Files

In 1985 & 1991 Newberg and Yamhill County undertook an inventory of their historic structures. These files contain title information, photos, and much history on homes and businesses in the community.

Sanborn Insurance Maps (please ask at desk for assistance)

These maps provide visual locations and information about Newberg building and businesses
1891, 1892, 1902, 1905, 1912, 1929

Clipping Files History Files

Volunteers have maintained clippings from local papers as well as flyers and brochures on a variety of local topics and people.

Directories History FilesPhone books

1960's to present, 1912-13 directory

Chamber of Commerce Directories

1980's to present

Schools

Newberg High School Year Books 1914 to present (some years missing)

Newberg High School Newspaper Echos (microfilm) 1923-45, 1947-59, 1960-77, 1977-1990

George Fox College Yearbooks 1935-37, 1939-40, 1950, 1969, 1970, 1976

Yamhill County Physicians 1880 & 1890 Genealogy SectionYamhill County Census printouts, 1870, 1880, 1900, 1910 Genealogy SectionLewis & Clark Exposition 1905 History Files

Essays written by Newberg children about Newberg history and businesses. Includes photographs

Military History of Yamhill County 1899 Genealogy SectionFamily Genealogy Genealogy and History Sections

Family Histories-the Everests, Parrett, Parrish families as well as others

Cemetery and other vital Records Genealogy Section

Vital Records from The Newberg Graphic 1889-1901

Cemetery Register: Friends Cemetery

Death Index Records (also microfiche)

Marriage Index (also microfiche)

Dundee memorial Cemetery

Noble Pioneer Cemetery Records, Vol. 3

Yamhill County Cemetery Records, Vol. 3

Online

Check the web site at www.newberglibrary.org under local history

